Friday 15th February

Dear Parents/Carers,

I cannot believe it is the end of the first half of term already 😊 We have had a lovely few weeks and the children have thoroughly enjoyed our topics on 'Winter, Snow and Ice, Chinese New Year and Valentine's Day'. This week love has been in the air celebrating Valentine's Day. The children have done some awesome heart based artwork and made cards for someone they love 😊 This morning the children have been busy making 'White Chocolate Chip Heart-shaped cookies, yummy 😊 When we return after half-term our topic will be 'Continents'. A little note from playball below;

We started with a little run around the cricket pitch as part of the warm up. We then introduced Mr Wombat (a ball on a piece of elastic) to the children so we could carry out some skills using that piece of equipment. Firstly the children, using their waving hands, had to hit Mr Wombat. We then used our heads to head Mr Wombat before attempting to kick him. To stretch some of the more able children, we then had to run after Mr Wombat and kick him whilst he was travelling across the ground. We then used a foam baseball bat to try to hit it. Again in order to push some of the older children, they had to attempt to hit it whilst the ball was swinging from side to side. We then finished the session with lots of games and running around from tag to
